Reported Speech 2.

In this lesson we are going to practice reported speech from past tenses.
Remember that when we use reported speech we must change the tense to a further back tense

Look at the examples.

Past Simple ⇒ Past Perfect

I drove to Paris yesterday. ⇒ He said he had driven to Paris the previous day.

I woke up in hospital. ⇒ He said he had woken up in hospital.

I worked last Sunday. ⇒ He said he had worked last Sunday

Present Perfect ⇒ Past Perfect

I've bought a new cushion. ⇒ She said she had bought a new cushion.

I've swum with sharks. ⇒ She said she had swum with sharks.

I've swallowed my chewing gum. ⇒ He said he had swalled his chewing gum.

Past Perfect ⇒ Past Perfect

No hay que cambiar el tiempo verbal para pasarlo a 'reported speech'.

The jury had had many doubts about the case. ⇒ She said the jury had had many doubts about the case.

Exercises. Write the following sentences using reported speech. Remember that each sentence is written using a past tense (past simple, past continuous, present perfect and past perfect)

1. My best friend at school became a nurse first.
He told me that his best friend at school had become a nurse. _____
2. I had lived in four countries by the age of ten.
She said that _____
3. We have seen four elephants already and it's only our first day.
